CV
COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Reservoir Media Management, Inc. ("Reservoir"), by and through its attorneys, Loeb & Loeb LLP, hereby alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. This is a copyright infringement action brought by Reservoir, a music publisher, against two record companies, Craze Productions and Hiphopland Ltd., and their principal, Mr.
Sam Kleinman, regarding their unauthorized and infringing exploitation of certain musical compositions recorded by the late double-platinum recording artist, Aaliyah ("the Compositions"). Craze Productions has been engaged in the unauthorized digital distribution of one or more of the Compositions and, as such, has damaged Reservoir in an amount likely to exceed One Million Dollars, in violation of the copyright laws of the United States.

2. The Compositions were also indirectly at issue in an earlier-filed California litigation commenced on June 14, 2007 between Blackground Records (“Blackground”), a record company, and Defendant Hiphopland. A unanimous jury found in favor of Blackground and dismissed all claims asserted by Hiphopland, and the trial judge granted Blackground’s counterclaim for an accounting for royalties due to the owner of the sound recording copyrights and determined that the total amount owed by Hiphopland to Blackground was in excess of Eight Million Dollars.

3. Upon information and belief, Mr. Kleinman retains controlling interest in both Craze Productions and Hiphopland Ltd. and operates both companies as his alter egos.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Reservoir is a music publisher incorporated in Delaware and with its principal place of business at 225 Varick Street, New York, New York 10014.

5. Defendant Craze Productions (“Craze”) is, upon information and belief, a United Kingdom corporation with its offices at 10 Great Russell Street, London, WC1B 3BQ, United Kingdom.

6. Defendant Hiphopland Ltd. (“Hiphopland”) is, upon information and belief, a United Kingdom corporation and a distributor of musical recordings with its offices at 5 Jupiter House, Calleva Park, Aldermaston, Reading, Berkshire, RG7 8NN, United Kingdom.

7. Defendant Sam Kleinman (“Kleinman”) is, upon information and belief, a principal of both Defendant Craze and Hiphopland and a resident of the United Kingdom.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8. This Court has original jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338.

9. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) and (3).

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Reservoir owns and administers the copyrights in the following songs, all acquired via assignment from Black Fountain Publishing, Inc. executed June 25, 2012 and submitted to the Copyright Office for recordation on or about June 28, 2012 (collectively, the “Compositions”):

True and correct copies of the copyright registration certificates for the Compositions and the recordation of their assignment to Reservoir, respectively, are attached as Exhibit A and B hereto.

11. The Compositions owned by Reservoir were all recorded by the late superstar artist Aaliyah on her double-platinum albums, “One in a Million” and “Aaliyah” (“the Sound Recordings”) for Blackground Records. Upon information and belief, Hiphopland acquired certain rights in the Sound Recordings, but not the Compositions, directly or indirectly, from Blackground.

12. Despite ostensibly acquiring certain rights in the Sound Recordings, Hiphopland has neither acquired, nor sought to acquire, the right to make and distribute phonorecords embodying the Compositions from Reservoir or availed itself of the compulsory licensing provisions set forth in Section 115 of the United States Copyright Act.

13. Upon information and belief, Craze has made and distributed copies of the Sound Recordings (which include the Compositions) in the United States and elsewhere as digital distributions through iTunes.

14. Upon information and belief, Craze has not acquired any right to make and distribute the Sound Recordings in the United States or elsewhere.

15. As a consequence, the making and/or selling of Sound Recordings by Hiphopland and Craze incorporating the Compositions whether in the form of CDs or through digital distribution was without the authority of Reservoir.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Copyright Infringement Against Defendants)

16. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 15 as if fully set forth herein.

17. Defendants have knowingly and willfully directly copied and distributed the Compositions, including through digital distribution.

18. Defendants did not obtain written permission or any license from Reservoir for the reproduction and distribution of the Compositions.

19. Reservoir is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the Defendants' infringing acts have been performed with knowledge of Reservoir's copyrights and that such acts were committed intentionally and willfully.

20. By reason of Defendants' willful infringement of Reservoir's copyrights, Reservoir has sustained substantial injury, loss and damage to Reservoir's exclusive rights in the Compositions and Defendants have unlawfully and wrongfully derived and will continue to derive income from their infringing acts, unless prohibited by this Court.

21. Reservoir has suffered substantial monetary damages in an amount not yet ascertained but to be proven at the time of trial.

22. If Defendants' wrongful unauthorized use and distribution of material from the Compositions continues, Reservoir will continue to suffer irreparable harm of a continuing nature for which there is no plain, speedy or adequate remedy at law. Defendants' acts of copyright infringement will continue unless Defendants are enjoined from further committing wrongful and infringing acts.

23. Reservoir has also incurred and will continue to incur attorney's fees and costs as a result of Defendants' infringement.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

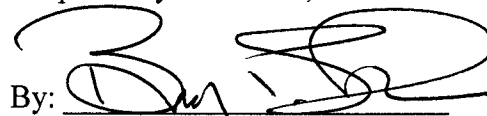

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Reservoir seeks relief and demands judgment against

Defendants:

1. For injunctive relief, as provided for in 17 U.S.C. § 502, namely for temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief preventing Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons acting or attempting to act in concert or participation with them, from directly or indirectly reproducing, copying, importing, delivering, distributing, selling, transferring, advertising, marketing, displaying, or making any unauthorized use of the Compositions;
2. For an order allowing for the impounding and/or destruction of all infringing articles, as provided for in 17 U.S.C. § 503;
3. For judgment for Plaintiff Reservoir's actual damages and the profits of Defendants, to be proven at trial, as provided for 17 U.S.C. § 504;
4. For judgment for statutory damages, if Plaintiff Reservoir so elects to recover instead of actual damages and profits, to be proven at trial, as provided for in 17 U.S.C. § 504;
5. For judgment for enhanced damages for Defendants' willful infringement, as provided for in 17 U.S.C. § 504;
6. For judgment for Plaintiff Reservoir's costs and attorney's fees in this action as provided for in 17 U.S.C. § 505; and
7. Awarding Plaintiff Reservoir its taxable costs, prejudgment interest, and such other and further relief as the Court shall deem proper.
